

Biography

George Borovilos is currently the A/Assistant Deputy Minister, Economic Development Division with the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs. Prior to assuming this role, he was the Director of the Business Development Branch with the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs.

Over the past 30 years, he has held a number of positions working at all levels of government - municipal, provincial and federal in the areas related to planning, economic development, downtown revitalization and tourism.

He is a Past President with the Economic Developers Council of Ontario and the current President of the North American Agricultural Marketing Officials. He has a Bachelor of Environmental Studies Degree in Geography from the University of Waterloo and a Master of Arts Degree in Urban Planning from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA). He is also a Certified Economic Developer with the Fellowship designation.